POLICIES AND PROCEDURES: PRIVACY

The School will endeavour to only ask a person for personal information that is reasonably necessary for the activities that the person is seeking to be involved in.

In relation to the collection and disclosure of sensitive information, the School is bound by the APPs, which provide for the circumstances in which disclosure is permitted, or required by law. The School also has a specific consent process which includes a sign off system and permission forms.

How will the School use personal information?

The School may collect, hold, use or disclose a person's personal information for the following general purposes:

- to identify a person;
- for the purpose for which the personal information was originally collected;
- for a purpose for which a person has consented;
- for any other purpose authorised or required by an Australian law; and
- for any other purpose authorised or required by a court or tribunal.

More specifically, the School may collect, hold, use or disclose a person's information relates to existing or anticipated legal proceedings and would not be available under the discovery process, or denying access is required or authorised by an Australian law or court order.

The School will seek to handle all requests for access to personal information as quickly as possible.

Complaints

Complaints about a breach of the APPs must be made in writing and according to the School's Complaints and Grievances Policy, available at www.yvg.vic.edu.au. The School will investigate any complaint and will notify the complainant, in writing, of any decision in relation to the complaint as soon as practicable.
